

Know more about the personality traits of Aries

Aries is the first sign that signifies a life coming into existence. The typical Aries personality traits include fearlessness, strength, courage, competition, determination, energy, enthusiasm, new experiences, passion, etc. Aries natives are fervent for everything, be it their relationships or ambitions. Aries are positive, confident, and decisive in all their tasks. They don't get manipulated by others. One of the best traits of Aries is their truthfulness. They speak bluntly and avoid sugarcoating their words. Apart from being highly imaginative and creative, they are very generous and empathetic. Aries is a disciplined and honest sign with incredible planning skills. They are secretive and often hide their emotions.

How Is Aries as Friend?

The Aries natives make for great pals. They are always interested in other people and wish to learn more about them. Aries share a smooth and easygoing bond with friends of their warmth and good communication skills. Aries natives take their friends as counselors and share their emotions with them. However, secretive at times, they share things with the one in their good books. Aries natives are not selfish and never take advantage of their contacts. They motivate and help their friends with better choices in life. They take their friends as their family and maintain a good balance between their friends and family. However, on the downside, the Aries natives don't like interference and control in their matters. They are willful people who love to make their decisions on their own. Their aggression and annoyance can sometimes create trouble in their friendly relations. They wish to dominate their friends and force their choices upon them. This dominance and forceful nature become detrimental to smooth, friendly relations.

WWW.VINAYBAJRANGI.COM

PTVINAYBAJRANGI

DRVINAYBAJRANGI

How Is Aries as a Parent?

Aries is a sign that likes discipline and focuses on work. It is a highly energetic sign and lets everyone finish their tasks on time. These personality traits make for strict parents. They interfere a lot in the lives of their children. They are also fussy about their studies and company. The Aries parents don't mind keeping a check on their children secretly. They wish to know every detail, including education and friends of their kids. However, they are great sportspersons and love to engage in physical activities and sports with their kids. They are the best game and gym partners for their children. They usually put restrictions more often. Aries fathers are uncomfortable allowing their children to make liberal decisions in life. So, we can see them as possessive parents nosing all their personal matters.

Aries Love Compatibility: Aries Love Compatibility with other signs

How Is Aries as a Partner?

Aries is an independent sign that can't compromise with their freedom. Marriage is a relationship whereby you must comply with your partner's expectations and needs. This requirement or expectation is beyond the personality traits of Aries. They take a longer time to adjust to their life partner. Energetic and passionate Mars rules Aries. The planet Mars signifies bodily attraction, which is why they make for a passionate and super-active sexual partner. They are particularly interested in sexual life but take longer to connect emotionally. They set healthy boundaries in relation since starting to avoid facing any issues later. They share domestic responsibilities and are helpful. But their short-tempered and aggressive nature creates problems in married life. The Aries partner can get annoyed even at the pettiest issues causing bitterness in relations. However, they ensure security and commitment in their relationship, which keep their spouse satisfied while sticking to them.

What Are the Best Careers for Aries?

Mars rules the sign of Aries. Thus, the professions indicated by the planet Mars will be the most suitable choice for the natives. They can opt for best career for Aries like engineering, military, police, electricity, defense, fire extinguishers, etc. They can also do well in the profession of healers, medical practitioners, bakers, caterers, carpenters, gym trainers, boxers, surgeons, wrestlers, sports persons, mechanics, athletes, adventure travelers, blood banks, goods dealers, and research work. Aries can't work under others' dominance so starting their own business also. They have good risk-taking abilities, which make them a good businessman. You can work in the advertising and marketing field. Also, the challenging areas where one needs to handle the constant pressure of meeting deadlines would fascinate them.

Aries at a Glance in 2023

Looking at the Aries yearly horoscope for 2023, we will find Rahu-Ketu in their first and seventh house, respectively. Honestly, this position is unsuitable for marital happiness, and the natives may find too much materialistic indulgence. But with Saturn transit into your eleventh house, things will improve. Jupiter will enter your first house in April to benefit your marriage, education, and fortune. Saturn will help your business grow and prosper. In all, 2023 will bring positive results in all areas of life.

Source: <https://sites.google.com/view/vinaybajrangis/blog/aries-personality-traits>

